

I disapprove of allowing an unlimited bandwidth size of transmitted signals. While this would easily allow new transmission methods, it would unnecessarily jeopardize existing forms of communication.

Please do not consider this proposal, as written. A more thoughtful rule change is necessary to encourage new transmission modes.

Thank you,
Jeff Chambers, NA6IA